Charles County Government
EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Charles County Government Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is available to help you and your family if you encounter problems that can affect your job performance. Employee problems such as marital issues, job stress, grief, family or financial concerns, emotional or sexual abuse, depression, or chemical dependency can take their toll and often lead to fatigue, poor health, and impaired job performance. The EAP can assist you through individual intervention services, seminars, and workshops.

An EAP service provider will return your call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

All full-time Charles County Government employees and their immediate family members living within the household are eligible for services.

FREE! The initial EAP assessment is free. Any follow on mental health services are typically covered by your private health insurance company.

CONFIDENTIAL! All information about your visit is held in strict confidentiality. Nothing is released without your written permission. An exception is if you pose a danger to yourself or others, or if you inform us about child or elderly abuse, confidentiality cannot be promised.
